Does the true and Great God - the Great Yehovah Elohim, just forgive, and forgive, and forgive when a person commit sins against the true God, and/or against another person? Also, can anyone commit any type of sin or injustice against another person, regardless of race, color, creed, or ethnic origin - and go unpunished?

The true and Great God - the Great Yehovah Elohim's Government-Kingdom, Holy Laws, and Perfect Will are "Eternal and Absolute," and rule over all individuals, families, people, families, cities and nations - regardless of religion, nationality, economics, education and social status, and regardless of race, color, creed, or ethnic origin, and also regardless of individual, people, families, cities and nations.

In the Heaven above, in the heavenly, Supreme Court of Laws of the Great Yehovah Elohim, there are "records of the deeds" of every individual person, family, people, city and nation on this Earth. The Great Yehovah Elohim sits in judging and in Judgment over everyone. The Great Yehovah Elohim is the Supreme Judge in his heavenly, Supreme Court of Laws and Order, and the Sentence of Judgment does go forth, regardless of people, city, nation, race, color, creed, or ethnic origin.

All throughout the Tanakh of the Holy Scriptures (the Old Testament) it shows how that the true God - the Great Yehovah Elohim, and his Kingdom - his Government-Kingdom and Holy Laws, rule over and govern "ALL" individuals, people and nations throughout this entire Earth. (Read my Article No.17 on the "Kingdom" of the true God, and how it rules and governs "all" people and nations throughout this Earth.

There are the Holy Laws of Commandments of the true Great Yehovah Elohim, and there are the Great Yehovah Elohim's Holy Laws of Physics, and also there are the Great Yehovah Elohim's Holy Laws of Nature. All three of these types of Holy Laws rule and govern everyone, and the entire physical Earth, regardless of people or nation.

When it come to sins and rebellion against the true God, there are many religious men and women who “fully believe” that a person can just Pray, and just repent, and just ask for forgiveness, and in that the person “fully believe” that everything will be forgiven, and in that the person “fully believe” that there will be “no punishment” for their sins and wrongdoings - whether against the true God, or against another person, or people or nation on this Earth. There are serious questions and answers that must be addressed concerning these very important issues.

In the time of the Great Wrath of Judgment of the true God, and in the time of the destruction of many “religious, and non-religious” men, women and children, and also of Cities and Nations of this Earth, sadly to say, there have been many individuals, groups and people who have accused the true and Great God of being “unjust, and even cruel,” especially in the light of economic collapsing of businesses, cities and nations, and of continual, destructive weather conditions, and of all sorts of geographic disasters, and in the light of famine, sicknesses, diseases, plagues, and massive destruction and death of many individuals, people, cities and nations of this Earth. Additionally, there have been major questions that have been asked, such as: “Why do the righteous suffer?” and, “Why have many evil things have happened to the righteous?”

Is the true and Great God - the Great Yehovah Elohim, “unjust and unfair in the execution of his Great Wrath of Judgment” against individuals, groups, people, cities and nations throughout this Earth, including against many religious men and women? Or is that many religious men and women have been totally “deceived, and even self-deceived,” and have been “misled by false religious beliefs” into believing that they can just commit some sins, and/or all sorts of sins, and/or continual sins, and/or the “wilful,” continual sins, and in that the person can just Pray, and just repent, and just ask for forgiveness; and by doing these things, in that everything will be forgiven, and in that there will be no punishment, regardless of what sins and wrongdoings that may have been committed against the true God, and/or regardless of what sins, wrongdoings, and great injustice that may have been done to another person, or to other people, or other nations?

What do the Holy Laws and the Holy Scriptures of the Tanakh (the Old Testament) have to say concerning these very important issues?

All throughout the Holy Scriptures it is “plainly shown” that the true and Great God does indeed issue out punishment for sins and rebellion against him, and also issue out punishment for sins, and wrongdoings, and injustice that are done against others, regardless of religion, race, color, creed, or ethnic origin; and regardless of Israelites or non-Israelites. Truly the true and Great God is “NO” respecter of person, nor people, nor nations on this entire Earth in the issuing of his punishment, and in the execution of his Great Wrath of Judgment. I fully encourage everyone to thoroughly and diligently READ, study, examine, know and understand the Tanakh and Holy Laws of the Holy Scriptures (the Old Testament), and see how that the true and Great God has “NEVER,” and will “NEVER” tolerate the sins of anyone, not even of the “religious” men and women; nor tolerate any type of injustice being done to another person on this Earth. Additionally, everyone must fully understand that even though there may be the forgiveness of sins, and wrongdoings, and of injustice being done against another person, there will be some sort of punishment. Let us take time now and thoroughly examine and see how that both “religious,” and “non-religious” men and women, and people, cities and nations have been “punished/corrected” by the true and Great God of the Universe. Let us examine:

1) The Deceptive Acts of the Patriarch Jacob - Jacob was a man of the true God, and Jacob served the true God. Yet, the man Jacob was encouraged by his mother into committing a great and deceptive deed against his brother Esau, in that he wanted to be blessed of God by his deceptive deed. Regardless of the fact that Esau was not truly righteous, yet the true God did “NOT” allow Jacob to go “unpunished” for the acts of deceiving and undermining his brother Esau. Jacob left for the country of Haran in order to obtain a wife. On the road to Haran, there were Angels who ministered to Jacob, yet in the area of Haran the true God “fully allowed” Jacob to be punished in that he spent many years being “deceived and undermined” by his father-in-law, Laban, for 20 years. Yes, the true God “fully allowed” Jacob, the Patriarch, the “righteous - the religious” man to be punished, even though there were Angels that met Jacob on the road to Haran, and even though there were Angels that met Jacob on his return to Canaan Land. Jacob reaped for “many years” for the deceptions of his brother - until he was confronted with and struggled with the Angel on his return to Canaan. Was the struggle with an Angel because of his evil deeds against Esau, and in that he had to face his past deeds, especially before facing Esau? Also, did it take 20 years for Jacob to confront his past deed of deceiving his brother Esau? It must be known that there have been times when a person will constantly struggle, regardless how long it may be, until the person “confronts” their past, and confront any past deed that he/she has committed against the true God, and also of any past deed that he/she has committed against another person.

2) King David and Bathsheba - King David allowed his passion to control him, and he lusted after a married woman, the woman Bathsheba. David committed adultery with Bathsheba, and Bathsheba conceived a child by David. David tried to cover up his evil deed by having Urijah (Bathsheba’s husband) killed, along with innocent, Israelites soldiers. The true and Great God did not allow King David to go unpunished. The penalty under the Holy Laws of Commandments of the true God for adultery is the death penalty, and also the penalty for shedding of innocent blood is the death penalty. Yet who was there to confront David concerning his evil deeds in an earthly Court of Laws because of David having the status of an earthly king? The true and Great God did not allow King David to go unpunished. The true God sent his holy prophet to confront King David, and once David realized that God was dealing with him, he repented, and confessed his evil deeds.

Did God allow King David to go unpunished, even though David confessed and repented of his sins of adultery and of the murdering of Urijah, and other Israelites soldiers? The answer is no! The true God told King David that there would be a “generational curse” placed upon his lineage because of his evil deeds, and also the true God struck the child that Bathsheba conceived by David in that the child died by the hands of God. Additionally, one of King David’s son was murdered by his brother because of sexual immoralities, and David's son Absalom rose up and drove King David from his kingdom. Absalom was put death. David wept greatly at the hearing of the death of Absalom, and he said, "O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! would Elohim I had died for you, O Absalom, my son, my son!" Question: Did King David believe that Absalom was suffering because of his past sins, and in that he believed that Absalom died because of his past sins with Bethshaba? (Read the Holy Scriptures about the incident between David and Bathsheba, and examine the "generational curse" that was placed upon David and upon his lineage because of adultery, and also because of murdering an innocent man (even a Gentile/Goyim man), and other Israelite soldiers.

3) The Israelites as a People and Nation - The Israelites were chosen as a people and nation to be the holy saints of the true and Great God, and to be a light to the nations of this Earth, even from the time of Abraham. They were graciously given the Holy Covenant of the true God, and they were given the Holy Laws of Commandments of the true God, and they were blessed in obtaining Canaan Land. The Israelites were to continue in the past of righteousness, and in that many nations would turn to the true God by the Israelites being the people and nation that the true God desired for them to be. Sadly to say, instead of the Israelites being a light to the many nations of this Earth, the Israelites were always attracted to and followed after the false religious beliefs, false gods, astrology, paganism, and witchcraft beliefs - of other people and nations. They were constantly punished for their straying away from the true God, and they were constantly "repenting, and offering up Prayers and offerings" for their backward ways. Instead of being firm and steady in loving, serving and obeying the true God, they continued on this path of constantly straying, and repenting thereafter. They reached a point in that God determined that the Israelites would be scattered by the Four Winds throughout the many nations of this Earth, and in that they would suffer curses, scattering, famine, suffering, and of many of them being destroyed. The scattering to the many nations started in 758 B.C.E., and lasted until 1948 C.E.

The question must be asked: Did the true God allow the Israelites to go "unpunished" because of their constant straying from him, and from his Holy Laws, and of their constant "repentance," yet remaining in their continual sins and rebellion against him and against his Holy Laws of Commandments? The answer is no! Instead, read about the horrible atrocities that the Israelites endured from the time of 758 B.C.E. until the end of World War II. Therefore, can "religious," and non-religious, men and women stray away from the true God, even in this present time, and go unpunished? The answer is no!

4) The Many People and Many Nations of This Earth - Can individuals, people, cities and nations of this Earth go unpunished for their sins, evil deeds, false religious beliefs, false gods, astrology, paganism and witchcraft beliefs and practices - even if they do not know the Holy Laws of Commandments and Holy Covenant of the true God? Can individuals, people, cities and nations of this Earth go unpunished for evil deeds and injustice committed against another individual person, or against another nation - even if they do not know the Holy Laws of Commandments of the true God? Can people and nations of this Earth go unpunished for their unjust wars, exploitation, oppression, cheap labor, and evil deeds committed against other people and nations of this Earth?

Since the time of the Garden of Eden to our present time, and forevermore throughout eternity, the true and Great God, and his righteous Government-Kingdom and Holy Laws of Commandments rule and govern over “all” individuals, people, cities and nations of this Earth, as well as the true God’s Laws of Physics, and the Laws of Nature. Even if a person, or a a people, or a nation, do not know of the true God’ Governemnt-Kingdom and Holy Laws, and Perfect Will, yet everyone is under these Holy Laws, and everyone is “judged” by these Holy Laws, and the “Sentence of Judgment” goes forth, regardless of person, or people, or city, or nation. It is like the Laws of Physics. The Laws of Physics do not respect person, regardless of who the person may be. In the areas of the Laws of Physics if a person does not know the power of “electricity,” and in that the person tampers with, or do something wrong in the area of electricity, the person may be electrocuted, and even may die. How many have died because of not knowing the proper functions of electricity, and in that the person tampered with electricity in the wrong way? In the areas of life, even if a person may or may not know of the Holy Laws of the true God, yet the Holy Laws of the true God rule over and govern that person. Read Hosea, Chapter 4, and see and know what the true God says why his people were destroyed because of a “lack of knowledge,” and also because of the “rejection of knowledge.”

The “Light and Truth” of many things of life have been with mortal beings since the time of the Garden of Eden, and to this present time, and also there is something within every person that tells a person that certain things are right and good, and in that certain things are wrong and evil. Sadly to say, many individuals, people and nations have rejected this awareness; therefore, the Great Wrath of Judgment goes forth. Whenever there is a violation of the Holy Laws of God there is a penalty to be paid - whether or not a person “knowingly, or unknowingly” violate the Holy Laws of God, including the Laws of Physics, and the Laws of Nature. The Israelites suffered for many centuries because of disobeying the Holy Laws of the true God. Also, all people and nations have suffered because of disobeying the Holy Laws of the true God of the Universe.

False Religious Beliefs and Houses of Worship Fully Encouraging of Continual Sins and Rebellion

Many houses of worship have fully encouraged the continual sins and rebellion against the true God, and against his system of Government-Kingdom, Holy Laws and Perfect Will. There are (and there have been) houses of worship that fully encouraged men and women, and even teenagers, and young men and women, to live in, and to “continue” in all sorts of sins, evil deeds, and wrongdoings, and in that these houses of worship have taught the people that God will just forgive, and forgive, and forgive, and in that person was deceived into believing that they will not be punished by God; therefore, the people continue on in their sins and rebellion against the true and Great God, and against his Holy Laws of Commandments.

Additionally, all false religious beliefs throughout this Earth fully encourage every type of sins, iniquities, crime and violence, and every type of sexual immoralities that can be committed, as well as fully encourage crime, violence, great injustice, and unjust wars against others, and against other people and nations on this Earth. Can elders, and religious leaders, and religious authorities, encourage men and women, and teenagers, and young men and women, into living a life of sins and rebellion against God, and against God's Holy Laws - and go unpunished? How many men and women, and how many teenagers, and how many young men and women, had their life brought into all sorts of deceptions and entrapments, and into confusion and destruction, and even in that there have been those who died young, all because of being misled into believing that they can live in all sorts of sins and rebellion against God, and in that they were to just Pray, and repent, and yet continue on in living in sins and rebellion against God? Regardless of age, and regardless how young a person may be, even teenagers and young adults, and even elders and religious leaders, all sins and rebellion that are done against the true God - do not go unpunished, and also all wrongdoings and injustice that are done against another person - do not go unpunished.

Many Questions To Be Asked and Answered, Especially in Regard to Religious Men and Women

There are many questions that must be asked and answered, especially in regard to religious men and women in this present time. There many questions are:

- 1) Can men and women go forth and live in all sorts of sins and rebellion against the true and Great God - and go unpunished? What do the Holy Scriptures have to say about sins and rebellion against him, and against his Holy Laws? Do Bible research on the punishment for sin and rebellion against the true God, and against his Holy Laws, and see exactly what the true and Great God has to say about sins and rebellion against him, and against his Holy Laws.

- 2) Can men and women reject and rebel against the true and Great God, and reject and rebel against his system of Government-Kingdom and Holy Laws, and also against his Perfect Will - and go unpunished? Since the time of Adam and Eve, and to this present time, men and women “COULD” have always accept, and lived “only” under, and obeyed the true and Great God of the Universe, and lived “only” under, and obeyed his system of Government-Kingdom and Holy Laws, and also sought to do his Perfect Will. Today, in this present time, how many men and women would like to totally “abolish” their present man-made system of governments, and their man-made laws, and taxation, and the false economic system, and thereafter fully accept, and live “only” under, and obey the true and Great God's system of Government-Kingdom and Holy Laws, and seek to do his Perfect Will? Also, what do the Holy Scriptures have to say concerning man-made systems of governments, and man-made laws, and of the corruption of man-made kingdoms?

- 3) Can men and women just go forth and “blindly and willingly” accept many things “by blind faith” in the areas of religions, and in the areas of man-made governments, and in the areas of economics, and also support evil things - and go unpunished? What do the Holy Scriptures have to say about following after and supporting false religious leaders, and false prophets, and false gods, and false religious beliefs of this Earth, and evil leaders?
- 4) Can men and women go forth and help to establish, and thereafter blindly Pray for and support deceptive, oppressive, man-made systems of governments, and man-made laws and courts, taxation, property taxation, and the confiscation of homes, land and properties of the people by man-made governments, and also support the deceptive, economic system of man-made governments - and go unpunished? What do the Holy Scriptures have to say about the man-made, Babylonian system of governments, and man-made laws, and courts of injustice?
- 5) Can men and women go forth and support “cheap labor,” and the oppression and exploitation of the poor and needy of this Earth, including the poor and needy of other people and other nations, including by cheap farm labors, and cheap labor in businesses and factories - and go unpunished? What do the Holy Scriptures have to say about the oppression and exploitation of the poor, and the needy, and the widow women of this Earth?
- 6) Economics? - Can men and women go forth and support, and put out their money into all sorts of investments of “usury and unjust gains” - and go unpunished? What do the Holy Scriptures have to say about “usury and unjust gains,” and of the execution of his Great Wrath of Judgment against the “usury and unjust gains” of the people?
- 7) Wars, and Continual Wars - Can men and women go forth and support man-made systems of governments in the their continual quest of waging all sorts of “unjust wars” throughout this Earth - and go unpunished? What do the Holy Scriptures have to say about unjust wars, and the shedding of innocent blood, and of the building of cities by the shedding of innocent blood?
- 8) Can men and women go forth, and degrade, persecute, hate, disrespect, insult, and have acts of crime and violence against men, women and children, and against other people and nations, and also do things to promote racism and reverse racism, especially because of all sorts of false religious beliefs, and false cultural beliefs - and go unpunished? What do the Holy Scriptures have to say about the oppression and exploitation of others, and of the strangers in our midst?
- 9) Can men and women go forth, and live in, and sanction, all forms of sexual immoralities in society, and believe that they just repent each week, and thereafter continue on in sexual immoralities - and go unpunished? What do the Holy Scriptures have to say concerning these issues?

10) Can men and women go forth and lie to, cheat, deceive, steal from, undermine, and do all sorts of evil deeds to others, and to other people, cities and nations of this Earth, especially because of one's false religious beliefs - and go unpunished? What do the Holy Scriptures have to say concerning these issues?

11) Can men and women go forth and obtain many material things, and of riches and wealth, and of homes, and try to establish one's securities - by the oppression, exploitation, cheating, deceiving, undermining, robbing, and even shedding of innocent blood of another person, or people, or nation on this Earth - and go unpunished? What do the Holy Scriptures have to say concerning these issues?

12) Can men and women go forth and be silent to the pollution and exploitation of our physical Earth, including the pollution and exploitation of our physical Earth by corrupt, man-made systems of governments, and by the corrupt, economic systems, and by evil corporations, and by chemical companies, and pharmaceutical companies, and also in that many men and women have had an indifference concerning the pollution and the exploitation of our physical Earth? What do the Holy Scriptures have to say about the pollution and exploitation of our physical Earth - the beautiful, blessed, good Earth that the true and Great God has given to mortal men and women in the creation of our Earth?

Whatever sins and rebellion that are done against the true God do "NOT" go unpunished, including of men and women, and of people, cities and nations. Whatever sins and wrongdoings that are done "DO NOT" go unpunished. Regardless how religious, or non-religious, a person may be, and regardless of the religious beliefs of a person, or city, or nation, the person, and the people, and the cities, and also the nations, "DO NOT" go unpunished. No sin goes unpunished regardless how small, or how "secretive" it may be. No sin goes unpunished, regardless of age, education, social status, race, color, creed, or ethnic origin, and regardless of Israelites or Gentiles. No type of "injustice" done against another person, people, city or nation goes unpunished, regardless of religion, race, color, creed, or ethnic origin, or status in life.

Being Punished, and Confronting One's Past, and Being Restored Unto the True God

The true and Great God does indeed "punish" for whatever sin, and wrongdoing that a person may commit. Yet, if the person repent and humble oneself before God, and confront their past sins and evil deeds that they have committed against the true God, and also humble oneself, and repent, and confront the past sins and evil deeds that the person has done against another person, or against another people, or against another nation - the true and Great God does forgive, cleanse, heal, and "RESTORE" the person to him, and there is a better relationship with the true and Great God, and also there is a vivid awareness that whatever sin, evil deed, or injustice that a person does commit, it will not go unpunished.

Hiding of God's Face Until There is Full Repentance - It is very important to know that God promises to “hide his face” from the person who is living in sin, or who have sinned - until there is repentance and acknowledgment of the sins and wrongdoings by the person, or the people, or the nation. Many “religious” men and women have had, and/or have, all sorts of “stumbling-blocks and hindrances” in their life, and in their Prayers unto God, and in various areas of their life because of various sins, and of holding onto all sorts of wrongdoings, or even of past sins that were never confronted, and repented of, and even of wrongdoings that were done to others. Secondly, there are many religious men and women who are indifferent to certain types of sins, especially in the areas of having false gods in the their life (false religious beliefs), and in the areas of sexual immoralities, and also in the areas of doing injustice and wrongdoings to another person, or to another people, including in the areas of business and finance. Therefore, the person's Prayers and progress in life are greatly hindered because of these past and evil things, and there is no true connection to the true and Great God - until the past sins and past evil deeds are confronted and repented of. There are men and women who have complained that God never answers their Prayers. The question must be asked: Is the person holding onto all sorts of sins and evil deeds in their life, and even of wrongdoings and injustice being done to others? On the other hand, if a person fails to turn to God, and fails to repent and acknowledge their sins, the sins remain with the person, and the remaining sins become a “continual curse” unto the person, and eventually the person is destroyed. There have been many individuals, and people, cities and nations, who failed to repent of various sins, and they were eventually destroyed, or were destroyed in a very short period of time. Therefore, it is so very important for a person to indeed humble oneself and repent of all past deeds, even if being punished, or have been punished, and get forgiven, cleansed, healed, and fully “RESTORED” unto the true and Great God, especially because the path to serving the true God is a blessed and righteous path.

The punishment of the Wrath of God “does NOT” last forever - when the person faces their sins, and when there is the full repenting of their sins, and when there is a complete turning away from their sins. The punishment only last for a certain period of time - if there is true repentance and a turning away from sin. The true God does fully forgives, cleanse, heals and restore the person to him, once the stumbling blocks and hindrances in the person's life are fully removed by God. Secondly, there is peace within one's soul with the true and Great God when there is the repentance, acknowledgment, cleansing, healing and restoration.

If the person continue on in their walk with God, the person will become “more closer with God,” and the person become more aware of whatever they may say to God, and concerning their own personal life, and also concerning their reactions and social relationships with others. Instead of looking at the punishment as being a negative thing, there is a great spiritual awareness of the Mighty, Spiritual Power of God, and how it works, even in one's very own personal life.

Most important, once there is the full restoration unto the true God there is “NO remembrance” of the past sins and wrongdoings at any time by the true and Great God - the Great Yehovah Elohim. Instead, the person continue in their walk with the true and Great God, especially in having a better and closer walk with God every night and day.

The punishment of the true God “does NOT” last forever. Remember how that Jacob was punished. After Jacob left Haran, and after his struggle with the Angel (before he met Esau), the punishment was “OVER.” King David was punished, and the punishment was “OVER.” King David humbled himself before the true God, and David knew why he was punished, and also David drew closer with the true God because of the reality of his painful ordeal. King David realized that he was being punished for the evil deeds that he did, and he humbled himself, and he became more “aware” of the spiritual Laws of God, and in that a person has no secrets with God, and in that a person will be punished. King David was fully restored unto God, and he wrote how that his “afflictions” were justified, and how that he learned many very important things from being afflicted for his foolishness.

Earthly Parents Punishing Their Children

Men and women must comprehend that God does indeed punish for sins and wrongdoings. Even earthly parents punish their children, even at times by using the rod in order to correct their children, and to let them know that foolishness and disobedience are not acceptable. Even though a parent punishes, and/or even uses a rod, yet many parents still greatly love their earthly children, and will do many good things for them. So therefore, yes the true and Great God “does punish,” yet the true and Great God does “LOVE and Care for” all those who seek to serve, love and obey him. A good example of this is how that God showed forth his great love for King David while he was alive, and even after many hundreds of years after the death of King David, and in that God did not hold King David’s sins and foolishness against him, and even though God punished King David, even with the death of his first child by Bathsheba.

Learning Powerful Lessons - From the Experiences of Being Punished by the True God in Many Areas of Life

There are very powerful lessons after being punished by the true God, whether of being punished for sins and wrongdoings against the true God, or whether of being punished for one’s sins and foolishness in one’s life, or whether of being punished for wrongdoings and injustices committed against another, and also whether of being punished for not seeking God for proper directions for one’s life. In Psalm 119:71-77, King David said that it was GOOD for him to have been afflicted (punished). Why could King David say such words? It is because of learning very powerful lessons concerning committing wrongdoings, and concerning the Holy Laws and Holy Word of the true God, and also concerning the importance of being righteous and just in all of our dealings with others.

Everyone Must Confront Their Past - There are questions that must be asked: Who has not done wrong - whether knowingly, or unknowingly, especially concerning seeking, hearing and obeying the true and Great God, and his Holy Laws and Holy Word, and also concerning having a “lack of knowledge,” and the “rejection of knowledge” of so many things in life? Who has not done wrong against another person, regardless of religion, race, color, creed, or ethnic origin? Therefore, everyone must and should confront their past, and of all the sins, evil deeds, and wrongdoings that were done against the true God, and that were done against others - whether knowingly or unknowingly.

Punishing the “Sinners” of This Earth, and Not Punishing Many Religious Men and Women?

It must be perfectly known, and greatly considered, that if the true God did not punish religious men and women, regardless of their religion, faith/belief, for “blindly and willingly” following after and believing in all sorts of false religious beliefs, false religious writings, false religious groups, false gods, astrology, paganism and witchcraft beliefs and practices - then how could the true and Great God “righteously and justly punish” the sinners of this Earth?

It must be perfectly known, and greatly considered, that if the true God did not punish religious men and women, regardless of their religion, faith/belief, for “failing to take time” to examine and know the Truth and true history of the true, Holy Scriptures, and of the righteous Government-Kingdom, Holy Laws, and Perfect Will of the true and Great God - then how could the true and Great God “righteously and justly punish” the sinners of this Earth?

It must be perfectly known, and greatly considered, that if the true God did not punish religious men and women, regardless of their religion, faith/belief, for “failing to take time” to examine and know the Truth and true history of the various false religious beliefs, and of the various man-made systems of governments, and also of the corrupt, economic system - then how could the true and Great God “righteously and justly punish” the sinners of this Earth?

It must be perfectly known, and greatly considered, that if the true God did not punish religious men and women, regardless of their religion, faith/belief, for “believing in the deceptions, and self-deceptions” that they can live in, and continue to commit all sorts of sins, wickedness, evil deeds, sexual immoralities, and every abominable evil and evil deeds, and also in that they can wage all sorts of “unjust wars” against other people and other nations of this Earth (including for the deceptions of economics) - then how could the true and Great God “righteously and justly punish” the sinners of this Earth?

Listing of Holy Scripture Verses Concerning Judging, and the Sentence of Judgment of the True and Great God

“For Moses had said, Consecrate yourselves to day to the Yehovah, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, You have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the Yehovah; peradventure I shall make an Atonement for your sin. And Moses returned unto the Yehovah, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold. Yet now, if you will forgive their sin-; and if not, blot me, I pray you, out of your Book which you have written. And the Yehovah said unto Moses, Whosoever has sinned against me, him will I blot out of my Book. Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto you: behold, mine Angel shall go before you: nevertheless in the day when I visit I will visit their sin upon them. And the Yehovah plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.” (Exodus 32:29-35)

“And the Yehovah descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the Yehovah. And the Yehovah passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Yehovah, The Yehovah Elohim, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation. (Exodus 34:5-7)

“But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against the Yehovah: and be sure your sin will find you out.” (Numbers 32:23)

“It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn your Statutes. The Law of your mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver. Your hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn your Commandments. They that fear you will be glad when they see me; because I have hoped in your Word. I know, O Yehovah, that your Judgments are right, and that You in faithfulness have afflicted me. Let, I pray you, your merciful kindness be for my comfort, according to your Word unto your servant. Let your tender mercies come unto me, that I may live: for your Law is my delight.” (Psalm 119:71-77)

“If his children forsake my Law, and walk not in my Judgments; If they break my Statutes, and keep not my Commandments; Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes. Nevertheless my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail. My Covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.” (Psalm 89:30-32)

“You answered them, O Yehovah our Elohim: You was an Elohim that forgave them, though you took vengeance of their inventions. Exalt the Yehovah our Elohim, and worship at his Holy Hill; for the Yehovah our Elohim is Holy. (Psalm 99:8-9)

“Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right. The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the Yehovah has made even both of them.” (Proverbs 20:11-12)

“If you say, Behold, we knew it not; does not he that ponder the heart consider it? and he that keeps your soul, does not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?” (Proverbs 24:12)

“I said in mine heart, Elohim shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.” (Ecclesiastes 3:17)

“Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear Elohim, and keep his Commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. For Elohim shall bring every work into Judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.” (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14)
